

Texas Navy Association

Historical Article

ITEMS.

Charles E. Hawkins, formerly of the U. S. navy, and late Commodore of the Texian navy, died at New Orleans, Feb. 13, of the small pox. He was buried with military honors.

Wm. B. G. Taylor, formerly of the U. S. navy, and recently attached to the Custom House at New Orleans, has been appointed Commodore of the Texian navy.

ARMY AND NAVY CHRONICLE, Volumes 4-5 April 6, 1837.

Editor by Benjamin Homans
Published by T. Barnard, 1837

Page 217