*This meeting and location give the TNA an opportunity to celebrate the great contribution that the Texas Navy played in stopping the supply chain that was instrumental in the success achieved at the Battle of San Jacinto.

This meeting and location give the TNA an opportunity to celebrate Texian Navy Day in Galveston as the Home Port of The Texas Navy Association and will be planned as a special event as it deserves the proper recognition.

YES, we can count! This makes 5 meetings this year, but incorporates 2 celebrations of our great history.

Don't forget the cutoff dates for submittals for the Newsletter.

Looking forward to seeing everyone!

Very Best Regards,

Admiral Scott Powell
President
